

EDUCATION MEETS NEOLIBERALISM AND THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF PRECARITY

BRITISH INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION (BISA)'S INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY GROUP (IPEG) AND BISA LEARNING AND TEACHING GROUP (BLT)

This workshop will critically examine the political economy of current changes in education policy in the UK and internationally as it has impacted and impacts marginalized groups as well as educators.

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Jo Cain, Head of Education Unison: The future of trade union education: perspectives from Unison

Prof Joyce Canaan: Political possibilities of informal education alternatives in England

Prof Matthew Watson: Taking the classroom into the community

Prof Mike Neary: Pedagogy of excess: an alternative political economy for student life

<http://www.bisa-ipeg.org/uncategorized/education-meets-neoliberalism-and-the-political-economy-of-precarity/>

FILM SCREENING
'The Poor
Stockinger, the Luddite Cropper
and the Deluded Followers of Joanna Southcott'

When 14th February
2014
10:30 -19:00

Where MIDDLESEX
UNIVERSITY
Workshops
Hendon Campus,
Town Hall,
Committee room
3; screening
Ricketts
Quadrangle, C114

RSVP
Merilin.Nurmsalu @gmail.com
with interest in attending for catering purposes