

4th Workshop on New Developmentalism: New theory and policy for developing countries

Hosted by the Centre for Studies on New Developmentalism of the Sao Paulo School of Business Administration – Getulio Vargas Foundation – São Paulo, Brazil

Itapeva St., 432, 4th floor

July 25-26, 2019

The Centre for Studies on New Developmentalism of the Sao Paulo School of Business Administration at Getulio Vargas Foundation is pleased to invite interested candidates for participating in the 4th Workshop on New Developmentalism – Theory and Policies for Developing Countries –, which will be held in São Paulo, Brazil, on July 25 and 26th, 2019.

The program will include, in the first day, a mini-course on new developmentalism in which this theory will be compared with classical developmentalism (development economics) as well as with post-Keynesian macroeconomics – the two school of thoughts from which new developmentalism originates.

This call for papers is for the second day. Submission of papers are welcome on the following subjects:

- political economy of new developmentalism (developmental capitalism x liberal capitalism, the developmental state)
- private and public investment
- the role of the five macroeconomic prices on structural change and economic development
- the comparison of new developmentalism with post-Keynesian economics and with classical developmentalism.

Applications

Researchers and students are invited either to attend to the workshop and submit a paper for a panel, or to attend to the workshop (lectures and panels) only.

FOR SUBMISSIONS TO PANELS: Candidates should submit an abstract, maximum size of 500 words (excluding references). It should be sent in pdf format and must include identification of author, filiation, and title of the article. Due date is March, 18th. Results will be released on March, 21st. E-mail address to submissions: cnd@fgv.br.

Final versions of papers for accepted submissions should be sent no later than May, 6th.

Best articles may be published in the Brazilian Journal of Political Economy.

FOR ALL INTERESTED PEOPLE: All applicants shall send a short (one page) curriculum vitae, containing no less than maximum academic degree, the corresponding institution, research interests and most relevant publications (not mandatory).
