

A photograph of the University of Hertfordshire Business School building. The building is a modern structure with large glass windows and a white facade. It is surrounded by green grass and trees with autumn foliage. The sky is blue with some clouds.

University of Hertfordshire

U H Hertfordshire
Business School

A unique course
An expert team
An incredible opportunity

MSc Global Economy and Business Institutions at Hertfordshire Business School

Work at the cutting-edge of economic thinking, with our unique research-informed Master's. Taught by an expert team and informed by powerful new research, it is exceptional preparation for a whole world of rewarding careers and doctoral opportunities.

Get to the heart of cutting-edge economic thinking

The unique, research-informed MSc in Global Economy and Business Institutions from Hertfordshire Business School is an unmissable opportunity to learn with academics who are experts in institutional, evolutionary and organisational economics, political economy and development economics.

Expand your understanding of institutional and organisational theories, analyse global economic issues and develop policy-making capabilities in a vibrant, research-rich environment, where you and your peers will drive discussions, make presentations and lead debates.

Our groundbreaking course is led by established researchers and professors, with insights from cutting-edge business leaders and academic guest speakers from across the world. And it is excellent preparation for a rewarding career in research, influential roles within the public or private sector, or the demands of PhD-level study.

Course structure

This is a full-time one-year course. Your modules are spread over three semesters, each building on the knowledge and skills you have already achieved. You will earn a total of sixty credits each semester. Assessment will be by a combination of examination and coursework.

Semester A modules

- Entrepreneurs, Firms and Markets
- Institutions, Structures and Evolution
- Research Methodology
- Varieties of Capitalism

Semester B modules

- Contemporary Debates in the Global Economy
- Corporate Governance, Law and Society
- Global Finance and Stability
- Political Economy of Development in a Global Context

Semester C modules

- Dissertation

The UK's leading business-facing university

This course draws on the research expertise of members of the Group for Research in Organisational Evolution and the Global Economy and Business Research Unit, both based at Hertfordshire Business School.

The School was named as one of the best new university business schools in the UK government's most recent quality evaluations, with teaching rated as excellent by the Quality Assurance Agency. On top of that, we are based within the UK's leading business-facing university. It is an incredible place to be.

Entry Requirements

An Honours degree at 2.1 or higher in economics, finance or management (with sufficient Economics content) from a UK university, or the equivalent from a recognised university overseas. If English is not your first language, you will need an IELTS score of at least 6.5.

Fees

Visit go.herts.ac.uk/fees

UH Programme Code
BSGEBI

Course Website

go.herts.ac.uk/GlobalEconomy

Take your place among tomorrow's economic experts

To find out more about this groundbreaking Master's, or to apply for a place on the course, please visit

go.herts.ac.uk/GlobalEconomy

or email;

business.school@herts.ac.uk

for more information.

“ Our groundbreaking course is led by established researchers and professors, with insights from cutting-edge business leaders and academic guest speakers from across the world. ”

