

On The Horizon - Forthcoming Special Issue

Publishing, Refereeing, Rankings, and the Future of Heterodox Economics

Edited by Wolfram Elsner and Frederic S. Lee

Academic Publishing: mainstream and alternatives

"Barriers to Entry: Heterodox Publishing in Mainstream Journals"
Jack Reardon

"Heterodox Economics and Dissemination of Research Through the Internet: The Experience of RePEc and NEP"
Marco Novarese and Christian Zimmermann

"Heterodox Economics and the Future of Academic Publishing"
Peter Earl

Heterodox Journals Networks and Ranking

"Journals as Constituents of Scientific Discourse: Economic Heterodoxy," Wilfred Dolfsma and Loet Leydesdorff

"Journal Citation Among Heterodox Economists 1995-2007: Dynamics of Community Emergence"
Bruce Cronin

"A Case for Ranking Heterodox Journals and Departments"
Frederic S. Lee

Research Contracting and Heterodox Economics

"Moral Rights and Wrongs of Research Funding"
Therese Jefferson

"Can the Principles of Heterodox Political Economy Explain Its Own Re-emergence and Development?"
Phillip A. O'Hara

Document - alternative to research assessment

"Submission from the Association for Heterodox Economics to the International Benchmarking Review on Research Assessment"
Alan Freeman

Country Reports

"The Assessment of Economics Journals in Italy"
Arturo Hermann

"News from Down Under"
John King and Peter Kriesler

"Ranking and the Prospects of Heterodox Economics in Greece"
Andriana Vlachou

This issue will be published in October 2008 and available online at: www.emeraldinsight.com/oth.htm

Please send all queries to Kate Snowden, Publisher at ksnowden@emeraldinsight.com

